

Week 5 Home Learning Suggestions

1. Sound of the week: “m”- Students can listen to the sound of the week and sing along! The action is to move the arms back and forth at their sides.

2. Sight Words: Students can create the new sight words with playdough, magnetic letters or draw them out with chalk outside!

I included a PowerPoint attachment as well that students can read different sight words in sentences. Students can try to find this week’s words as well! They just have to click on the play button on each slide to hear the sentence.

- Maman
- Grande (This word is used to describe something that is feminine)
- Grand (This word is used to describe something that is masculine)

3. Reading & Writing: Students can continue reading books on “Je lis”! I have also attached a few websites where they can read, write and work on word work for fun! These are great interactive sites!

4. Math: The next two weeks will focus on estimation/measurement. I have added a couple activities to the choice board. Students are also asked to practice counting forwards and backwards from 1-100 and skip count by 5 & 10.
5. You and Your World: Being at home, we tend to snack more than at school. It is good to practice healthy eating while still enjoying some sweet treats occasionally. Watch one of the listed songs on YouTube and try to create your own game with different foods around your house. Cover them with something and sing the song! Play with a sibling and see if they can tell you if it is a healthy snack (BON) or not as healthy (MOINS BON).
