

In Flanders Fields: Reflection

How does this poem make you feel? Why?

What line of the poem do you think is the most powerful, or impacts the reader the most?

Why do you think that this poem is often read on Remembrance Day?

