

I recommend Forrest Gump, although it's 13+ for drug content, some sexual content, and war violence it makes up for it with its loveable character Forrest Gump. The main character Forrest Gump is hilarious without trying to be, and even in rough situations he can bring a smile on your face. While Forrest has a low I.Q, but it leads him to be in major events around the 50's and 60's. In the movie you get to watch Forrest grow up, see him struggle, and you get to know what he's thinking. Although the movie isn't in the top 10 in Canada it doesn't mean it's not a great movie.
